Back-page nature story

Then Zacchaeus had an idea. There was a big tree right by the road where Jesus would walk. The big tree had branches that hung right over the road. Zacchaeus ran to the tree. Zacchaeus was wearing men's clothes, but he didn't care. Zacchaeus climbed right up the tree and sat on a big branch that hung over the road. [Picture #1]

There were lots of people walking and talking with Jesus. Everyone was so busy talking, Zacchaeus was sure that he wouldn't be noticed. But when Jesus walked under the big tree, He stopped and looked straight up at Zacchaeus. Zacchaeus was very surprised when Jesus stopped under the tree. He was even more surprised at the kind look on Jesus' face, and by the kind words He said. What did Jesus say to Zacchaeus? Read Luke 19:5.

The people who were walking with Jesus were not so surprised at Zacchaeus. "Why would Jesus go to Zacchaeus' house?" they asked each other. "Didn't Jesus know that Zacchaeus is a thief?"

But Zacchaeus was very, very happy. Jesus knew his name! Jesus wanted to go to his house! Zacchaeus hurried down from the tree and stood by Jesus. He told Jesus that he was sorry for stealing. Then they went to his house. [Picture #4]

Jesus didn't care what those people thought. Jesus knew that Zacchaeus was sorry for stealing. Jesus knew that Zacchaeus was paying back all the money he had stolen. Zacchaeus was being kind to poor people who needed food and clothes. Zacchaeus had changed!

Before meeting Jesus, Zacchaeus knew people didn't like him. But Jesus loved Zacchaeus. Zacchaeus loved Jesus, too, and made a special meal for Jesus to show his love. "Would you like to invite Jesus into your home like Zacchaeus did?" When you read Bible stories and pray, it is the same as inviting Jesus into your home. [Picture #2] When you help Daddy and Mommy, and when you are kind to your brothers or sisters, it is the same as inviting Jesus to visit your home.

Let's invite Jesus into our homes every day.

My Prayer
Thank You, Jesus, for loving us so much. Please visit our house today. We choose to belong to You. Please keep us safe from Satan. Amen.

My Memory Verse
"I always do those things that please You," John 8:29

Parents' Corner
Let not home education be regarded as a secondary matter. It occupies the first place in all true education. Fathers and mothers have entrusted to them the molding of their children's minds. It is their privilege to help their children obtain that knowledge which they may carry with them into the future life. —The Review and Herald, June 6, 1999

3 Jesus went with Zacchaeus to his house. Zacchaeus was happy that Jesus loved him and ate with him.

They didn't like Zacchaeus, and they didn't want Jesus to like him, either. But Jesus loved Zacchaeus. He knew that Zacchaeus was sorry for stealing. Animals That Climb

"So he ran ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see Him, for he was going to pass that way." Luke 19:4

Helps them to hold onto and climb just about anything. Geckos can climb more than trees. They might climb right up a smooth wall, a piece of glass, or even walk upside down across a ceiling!

Squirrels are also very good at climbing. Squirrels have sharp little claws that help them to hold onto trees or whatever they are trying to scamper up!

One of the best animal climbers, the cat, might live in your house. In a house, a cat might try to climb some curtains. That's not a good idea.

Jesus knew that some animals would need to climb trees, so He made them so that they could. Jesus also made the trees for the animals to climb. Isn't Jesus wonderful!

What did the disciples do? Matthew 19:13. We Jesus placed His hand on them.

TUESDAY
Jesus loved boys and girls, but His disciples thought that His work for adults was too important to be interrupted by children. So when the mother and children came to see Jesus, the disciples told them to go back home.

How did the mother and children feel? But when Jesus heard what His disciples said, was He pleased? What did He say to them? Mark 10:13, 15.

Jesus told us His love to the children, and they ran to Him. Jesus gently picked up some of them and held them close. Then what did He do? Verse 16.

Jesus wanted the mothers to bring their children to Him. He knew that they loved their children and were working hard to raise them to love and obey God. He knew that they had been praying and asking God to help their men (their children) the right way. He was very happy to help them realize.

When the mothers were home that evening, their men were happy that Jesus had blessed their children. The children were happy, too. Now they know that Jesus loved them and was their friend. And all this time they remembered that special day with Jesus. Some of these children became special workers for Him.

Does Jesus want to spend time with Him? Is your mother bringing you to Jesus by patiently teaching you to obey? We can tell her. "Thank you!"

WEDNESDAY
After Jesus had blessed the children, their mother was very happy because Jesus loved them.

There was one mother who wanted Jesus to do something special for her sons, James and John.

What did she ask Jesus to do for them? Matthew 20:21.

James and John were two of Jesus' disciples, and they loved Jesus very much. They always wanted to be close to Him. They thought that when Jesus would be King in Jerusalem and sit on a throne, and they wanted to have the best places in His kingdom. That's why their mother asked Jesus to let them sit next to Him when He became King—on each side of Him.

Jesus knew that He was now going to sit on a throne in Jerusalem. Instead, He was going to sit on a cross. But Jesus didn't mind. James and John didn't know that either. They were asking about something, and they didn't want Jesus to be there.

Let's go, when they were alone together. Jesus asked, "What were you arguing about on the boat?" The disciples didn't answer, because they were ashamed of themselves. What had they been arguing about? Mark 9:34.

Later that day, Jesus' disciples asked Him a question. What did they want to know? Matthew 20:21. They were very interested in being great, weren't they?

Jesus asked a little child to come to Him. Then, suddenly, holding the child in His arms, He said, "Children who are committed and become as little children, you will all be my means into the kingdom of heaven."

Jesus was telling His disciples that they needed to change. They needed to be like little children—living and trusting, happy and content, and willing to help others. Pleased with people who are so happy.

The disciples had asked, "Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?" What was Jesus' answer? Verse 5.

By His humble life, Jesus showed us how to be truly great. Do you want to be truly great? How can you help others today?

MEMORY VERSE
 "Jesus said, 'Let the little children come to Me, and do not hinder them: for of such is the kingdom of heaven.'" Matthew 19:14

MY PRAYER
 Dear God, thank You that Jesus loved me and is listening to my prayer. I want to be great for my young others. Help me to be gentle and kind. Help me give up my toys and come quietly when Daddy or Mommy calls me. I love You to Jesus' name amen.

THINK TIME
 Did Jesus love children? Did He take time to sit with them? (Yes, James loved Jesus' story's better when you go?) Jesus' disciples thought that to be great, they had to get the best places first in that room? If you get the largest number on the board game, does that mean you are the greatest? Jesus is King of heaven, but He never gets big in our world. How can you be like Jesus and help others?

A SURPRISE FOR CAPTAIN BATES

—God's Special Messenger, part 3, by Amy Sherman, Adapted from Little Ellen.

After Ellen Harness's accident when she was a little girl, she had tried to hold a pen, and her writing was too messy for anyone to read.

When Ellen was about three, she had a very special message. He told her to write what He showed her to listen or people could know the important things He was telling her. Ellen obeyed, and when she picked up her pen, but had stopped thinking and became angry and her writing was so messy, and after she wrote, Ellen wrote many letters, books, and printed magazines.

One person who was eager to hear Ellen and read the things she wrote was Captain Joseph Bates, who was now a preacher. He knew that the things Ellen said and wrote all agreed with the Bible, but he wanted to be very sure that her visions were from Jesus. He didn't want to be deceived.

One day Captain Bates went to a meeting where Ellen was speaking. After the speaker, Jesus gave a vision of some of the places that look like stars at night. They were very beautiful, and when Ellen was in vision, she talked about them.

Captain Bates knew a few things were, because they had helped him guide his ship across the ocean. When Ellen talked about printed books and that means around a beautiful planet, Captain Bates was excited. He knew the name of the planet she was talking about. "That is Jupiter!" he exclaimed.

Then Ellen started talking about another planet with beautiful rings and seven moons around it. "That is the ringed planet," the captain said.

After the vision ended, Captain Bates talked to Ellen. "Have you ever studied astronomy?" he asked. (Astronomy is the study of stars.)

Ellen thought a moment, and then she said, "I don't remember ever seeing an astronomy book." "I don't think you ever saw an astronomy book," she said later. And after that day, Captain Bates knew for sure that the visions were from Jesus. And he decided Jesus was for leaving us so much that He had given a prophet to help people be made for Jesus' coming.

The Ellen was wondering about something that Captain Bates believed. For a long time, he had been wondering on Sabbath, the seventh day of the week, instead of on Sunday, the most Christian day. He said that he wondered on that day because that is what the Bible says to do.

Ellen had already learned that many things she had been taught by her church were not to the Bible. Now she wondered how she could be holy. Was it Sunday, as she had always believed? Or was it Sabbath, as the Bible had said?
