

And God blessed them, saying,
“Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth.”
So the evening and the morning
were the fifth day.

And God said, “See, I have given you every herb that yields seed which is on the face of all the earth, and every tree whose fruit yields seed; to you it shall be for food.

